Special Newsletter - Kenyan Elections

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. Matthew 5:9

Dear Friends of RealStars,

Greetings in the name of our Lord Jesus! It is our prayers that you are doing well. As you might know our country Kenya recently went for an election which happens after every five years. People came out in large numbers and cast their votes in a very peaceful manner, but after the whole process of counting to determine who won different seats some of the leaders and their followers were not happy with the results especially for the presidential. This caused a lot of tension and chaos especially in their strongholds.

Most of the people and leaders advocated for peace which really worked. We are very happy and pleased to inform you that RealStars children and their families are all safe we have had not a single incident or accident with our children and their families. We are thanking God for his protection over our land Kenya and its people.

Of course those days of tension after the elections also affected our children and their families. We received many calls from our people who didn't have food to feed their families because most businesses had been closed for days and there was no food left. We are thankful for receiving donations of beans and maize locally which we distributed to families in need.

Please continue to pray with us that the government and opposition may work together for peace in Kenya.

Thank you all for your continued support and prayers.

Best wishes from Kenya
